The Editors

We, the 1966 graduating class of Thomas C. Walker School are leaving this yearbook as a treasure commemorating the most important year of our lives.

As we journey on in life, many friends and good times will be forgotten. Many of us would like to bring back those fond memories of our high school experiences.

Many tireless efforts have been spent in preparing this yearbook. It is the sincere wish of the 1966 yearbook staff that as you turn these pages, you may recall the many smiles and friends at dear Thomas C. Walker High.

The impact of our "textured" yearbook illustrates the impact this school year has had in preparing us for the future. Note the intricacy of the weave. Interwoven similarly into our lives are the invaluable learning experiences of our school days...learning experiences that have involved innumerable persons, places and things. The impact of these experiences will be felt for all the years to come.

THE EDITORS

Our Alma Mater

Chorus:

Oh, Walker School, dear Walker School,
Our hearts beat warm for you.
We will ever sing your praises
And wave your banners, too.
Your standards have been high always
And we will keep your rule;
We will ne'er forget or e'er regret
Our dear old Walker School.

Verse:

Our dear old school is sacred
And has served for many years
The boys and girls of Gloucester
Amid their joys and fears.
We love them with sincerity
The grounds, the buildings, all
And cheerfully we'll answer
To every bid and call.

Our Principal Speaks

Dear Class:

Throughout your entire life you have been taught, watched over and protected. You have been guided by your parents, teachers, schoolmates and friends. Your background is full of rich experiences which can be used in helping you to make many wise decisions.

As you graduate, remember that you must still depend on society at large if you would succeed in your chosen fields. You must work cooperatively and continuously with your associates. You will find the road rough and unbearable at times, but this should not discourage you. You have a goal to attain, therefore, you can weather the hardships in order to accomplish your aim.

You are now living in a changing society, and opportunities are being presented that have not been available to you before, throughout the United States and the world at large.

This success is yours if you will work diligently for your goals.

I wish for you much success in the years that lie ahead.

Haywood E. Johnson
Principal

Our Assistant Principal Speaks

To the Senior Class:

Raphael painted wisdom, Handel sang it, Phidias carved it, Shakespeare wrote it, Wren built it, Columbus sailed it, Luther preached it, Watts mechanized it, Washington armed it, you must acquire it. The sum of wisdom is that time is never lost that is devoted to work. Go where you will and do what you may, the wise man is always at home.

Mrs. B. S. Thomas

The members of the class of 1966 have my sincere wishes for success and happiness as you depart from this phase of learning to greater levels of endeavors. I have great expectations for you. You are expected to be courageous and creative enough in your efforts to accept the challenges which confront you in the future. May the guidance I have departed with you be adhered to forever and forever, for it is a stepping stone into the pathways of life.

A Thought for Seniors

The Builders

All are architects of Fate,
Working in these walls of Time
Some with massive deeds and great,
Some with ornaments of rhyme.

Nothing useless is or low;
Each thing in its place is best;
And what seems but idle show
Strengthens and supports the rest.

For the structure that we raise,
Time is with materials filled;
Our todays and yesterdays
Are the blocks with which we build.

Truly shape and fashion these;
Leave no yawning gaps between;
Think not because no man sees,
Such things will remain unseen.

In the elder days of Art,
Builders wrought with greatest care
Each minute and unseen part;
For the gods see everywhere.

Let us do our work as well,
Both the unseen and the seen;
Make the house where gods may dwell
Beautiful, entire and clear.

Else our lives are incomplete,
Standing in these walls of Time,
Broken stairways, where the feet
Stumble, as they seek to climb.

Build today then strong and sure,
With a firm and ample base;
And ascending and secure
Shall tomorrow find its place.

Thus alone can we attain
To those turrets, where the eye
Sees the world as one vast plain
And one boundless reach of sky.

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

Class Song

First Verse

The time is here to say good-bye
To friends we've found so dear
We won't forget you Walker School
And the time that we've spent here

Second Verse

The guidance you have given us
Will mingle with our tears
And brighten up our glad young hearts
Alone life's joyous years.

Chorus

To Walker School we bid adieu
And now it's time to say
That we have loved our stay with you
And will come back some day.

Composed By
Barbara Howard
Otistine Reid
Dorothy Gray

Tune: Auld Lang Syne

Class Poem

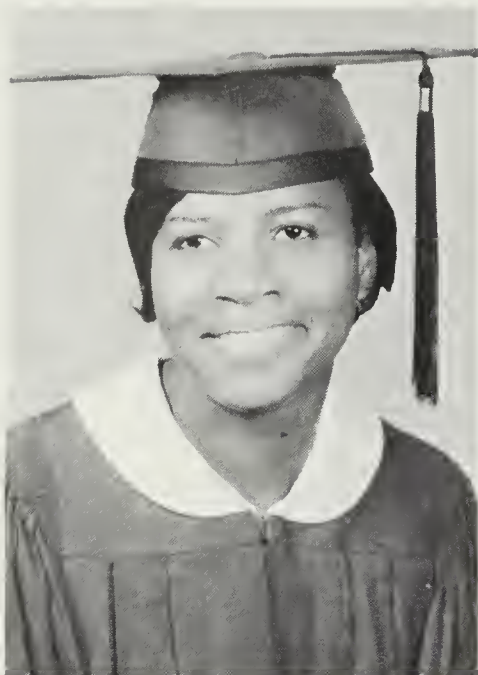

How we hate to say Good-bye
To all we love so dear.
We will never forget the many things
That you have taught us here.

So bright the future days may come,
Our goals we may obtain.
But we will remember that it
was with you
Our future really began.

So as we leave this stage of life
And future years pass by;
We will never forget our memories
Of the years at Walker High.

Homecoming Activities

Homecoming. . . 1965-66

The tension had been building up for weeks. Throughout the school whispers of "I wonder who will be queen", were heard. Finally the announcement was made that Miss Charlotte Randall would be crowned Homecoming Queen of 1965-66.

The Homecoming Queen and her court pause for pictures during half time.
